January 25th marks the end of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity as well as the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. In recognition of every Christian's need for ongoing conversion and Christ's call to be united in spirit, Our Lady of Peace will host a special evening of prayer, presentation, private reflection, and process in the group. The evening will offer the opportunity for participants to thoughtfully and prayerfully consider the ways in which each of us as individuals might become more like Jesus in our interactions with family, neighbors, colleagues, and within our own parish. Special focus will be given to active listening, communication, and conflict resolution skills. The evening will open with a pot luck supper at 6 p.m., and conclude no later than 9 p.m. Facilitators will be friends of Our Lady of Peace: Deacon Chris Barrett of Resurrection, Moneta, and his wife Anne Gibbons, Associate Chaplain at Lynchburg College. All adults are encouraged to attend.
