An abundance of stuffed toys have been donated to the Teddy Bear Brigade in the past to help orphaned children in third world countries. These children have no one to love them, and in turn do not know how to love. A stuffed toy, something that they can hold on to, can give them a sense of worth. It helps them feel emotions and tenderness. Your generosity can help to bring about a miracle. To get involved or to donate contact Eileen Brennen at 434 248 6641.

Clothing Exchange Needs Help

Help is needed at the Clothing Exchange on Mondays, Thursdays, and Saturdays between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.

May is Mental Health Month

The aluminum cans in the picture were donated by Marg MacDiarmid. These cans will go to the Mental Health Peer Group at the Haley Center in Lynchburg. The people at this center will use the money earned from recycling the cans to open up areas to go every day, meet new friends, learn new skills and flourish with supportive people in a culturally sensitive community.

Thanks to all who have been bringing in their aluminum cans to Eileen Brennen. It is easier to throw them in the trash than have to transport them to church. However in doing so, you all are doing double duty, staying green and helping folks with mental health conditions. Please continue to bring in your aluminum cans for recycling.
