Native American Catholic Ministry

The first Kateri Circle in the Richmond Diocese will begin on Thursday, April 24, 2014 at 6:30 pm. Join us in the Great Hall at the Catholic Church of St. Mark, 1505 Kempsville Rd., Virginia Beach, VA 23464. This is a part of our Native American Ministry but you do not have to be a Native American to participate. Come and learn about Catholic Native Americans, our newly canonized St. Kateri Tekakwitha, our culture, watch a 30 minute DVD; How To Trace Your Native American Heritage, and discover your Native American Heritage. This process could have you enrolled in as little as ninety days. The contact person is DJ Bradley - (757)390-7064. All are welcome.

Msgr. Chester Michael - Thought of the Day

Msgr. Chester Michael, lives at Our Lady of Peace retirement community in Charlottesville. This first year he has not been able to actively guide the Spiritual Direction Institute, he sends along a thought for the day via emails from graduates.

Father wants everyone to celebrate Palm Sunday with vigor. He believes that Christ comes to us every Easter, and we have an opportunity to welcome Him into our lives anew. Palm Sunday is, therefore, a happy occasion for doing so.

Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken: "Before the cock crows you will deny me three times." He went out and began to weep bitterly. Matthew 26:73

On the Cover

On today's cover is the painting, St Peter Weeping before the Virgin Painted in 1647, by the Baroque Artist Guercino, this painting is also known as The Tears of Saint Peter. The artist has not told us whether the scene is before or after the Resurrection of Jesus. We must draw our own conclusions, noting however, that both Peter and Mary are holding kerchiefs and have sad expressions. Mary is listening intently to Peter's confession of his denial of Christ. Is she sad because of the content of the confession or because her son has not yet risen from the dead? Interestingly, Guercino has painted Mary with a halo and St. Peter without.
