It will be facilitated by Deacon Kevin Hogan and his wife Adria from St. Edward the Confessor parish in Richmond. We spend time completing continuing education for our jobs, but our greatest vocation is as married people and parents (if we have kids). This will provide us a local, affordable way to give our marriages time and attention so that we can grow in love and faith with God and our spouse. There will be registration and a fee of about $25 which will include workbooks for each person. You will get you more specific info before July 12. For more information contact Mimi Campbell at campmi@hotmail.com
