Prayer Shawls for those in Need

St. Victoria has a ministry in which people make "Prayer Shawls". A shawl is made with yarn during prayer. The shawls are for those who are bereaved, sick, homebound or need comfort in any form. The one receiving the shawl is embraced by the community and God's care. If you know some one who would like a prayer shawl contact Fr. Jim and he will inform the ministry. The shawls come in various colors and are free.
