Our Lady of Peace Ribbons for Life Fundraiser

We will be offering ribbons in the colors of the cancer they represent. The ribbons will be pinned on the cancer quilt in the commons. They will stay on the quilt for the rest of this year. Next year we will take the ribbons down and start the campaign all over again. A $5.00 donation is asked for each ribbon. This is a wonderful way to remember and honor friends and family in this effort to raise money for research and a cure of cancer. Ribbons will be available after Mass on Sunday.

On the Cover

On today's cover is the painting, St Peter Weeping before the Virgin Painted in 1647, by the Baroque Artist Guercino, this painting is also known as The Tears of Saint Peter. The artist has not told us whether the scene is before or after the Resurrection of Jesus. We must draw our own conclusions, noting however, that both Peter and Mary are holding kerchiefs and have sad expressions. Mary is listening intently to Peter's confession of his denial of Christ. Is she sad because of the content of the confession or because her son has not yet risen from the dead? Interestingly, Guercino has painted Mary with a halo and St. Peter without.
