HOSPICE HOUSE, (News & Advance, 3/12/18)

The first year of the Hospice was a huge success. Hospice manager Dana Garrett said one patient wanted to contribute her own quilt to the Friends of Bedford Hospice annual fundraising quilt auction. The woman died before she could complete her work, but a volunteer, who she taught to quilt, finished it in time for the auction.

For those interested in volunteering, email Angela Mackzum@centrahealth.com. For information on the Friends of Bedford Hospice House go to <http://Bedford-house.org/> Or at OLOP speak to Eileen and Terry Brennen, Hospice Volunteers who were privileged to have known and helped the above-mentioned quilter.
