Thirteenth Annual Fair Trade Sale

High quality, fairly traded gift and home items will be on sale at Resurrection Catholic Church's annual fair trade sale on Saturday, November 3 from 10 a.m. until 5 p.m. and Sunday, November 4 from noon until 4p.m. Your purchase empowers artisans and farmers around the world to break the cycle of poverty.

Resurrection hosts these Fair Trade Sales to support the low-income artisans and farmers behind each item being sold. Our sale gives area residents an opportunity to buy a beautiful gift with a story behind it – of an artisan or farmer receiving a fair wage for their work, sending their children to school (often for the first time), and saving income for a hopeful future. Proceeds also help fund projects such as health clinics, schools and wells. Items include scarves, baskets, one of a kind jewelry, home décor, chocolate and coffee. All are handcrafted. Join with us as we strive to enrich lives around the world and to inspire real change for the better.

God's Timing

Brennan Manning

The mind-boggling figure of twelve to fifteen billion years — the estimated life of our universe — reminds me of a wonderful story in the Yiddish tradition. One day Israel Schwartz asked God, "Yahweh, is it true that for you a thousand years is just a minute?" Yahweh answered, "Yes, Izzy, that is true." Izzy had a second question: "And Yahweh, is it true that for you a million dollars is just a penny?" Yahweh replied, "Yes, Izzy, that is also true." Extending his right hand with palm upturned, Izzy Schwartz said, "Yahweh, give me a penny." And Yahweh said, "Certainly. It'll take only a minute."
