Close The Doors!

Our building, sanctuary, Corter Hall, and commons, all have sectional heating. It is important that when you are done with an area, you close the doors. If you are one of the last people leaving, close all the doors between the sections.

Have You?

The best way to deal with a problem is to learn as much as you can about the problem at hand. The Committee for Education and Action on Sexual Abuse (CEASA) has been engaging the parish on relevant topics through quarterly parish discussions. CEASA will continue to facilitate these discussions, but there are resources available for all to learn more about the crisis of sexual abuse in our Catholic Church. There is an exceptional amount of information available but here are three very informative resources:

The movie Spotlight. This movie is about the Boston Globe investigation of sexual abuse of children in the Diocese of Boston. The movie won the Best Picture Oscar for 2015. Spotlight the Film, it's worth a Google.

Pennsylvania Grand Jury Report, page 1. The first 3 paragraphs of the introduction say it all. <https://www.documentcloud.org/documents/4757021-Pennsylvania-Grand-Jury-Report-on-Catholic.html>

National Catholic Reporter free daily newsletter. This is a great source of information on a wide variety of topics relevant to modern Catholics, especially the world-wide sexual abuse crisis in our Church. This newsletter is available by email. To subscribe go to: <https://www.ncronline.org/free-newsletters>

Please message Diane at diane.bradish@gmail.com or see her at church if you have recommendations for future columns. These requests must be approved by Fr. Jim before they will appear in this corner. Thank you so much.
