Memorable Moments in Diocesan History

To be published each week of the 200th anniversary liturgical year

by Chene Heady

Josephite priests for many decades worked throughout the diocese of Richmond, founding schools to provide African-Americans with a quality education. The students and their parents were often then attracted to Catholicism; parishes arose from the schools. This mission could be dangerous. At a 1926 parish picnic, the Josephite priest Fr. Vincent Warren of Norfolk was kidnapped by a carload of KKK members. He was released unharmed, and later reported that his willingness to stand up to the KKK had led to many African-Americans enrolling in his school.

Upcoming Meetings and Events

Many Thanks From Fr. Jim

Fr. Jim Gallagher expresses thanks for all the cards, gifts and greetings for his birthday. Gracias!

Cluster Meeting Postponed

St. Victoria's Parish Council would like to postpone our August 10 cluster meeting. They will be looking for a better time to invite us with less Covid 19 virus restrictions.

Holy Day Masses for the Feast of the Assumption

August 15 is a Holy Day. Holy Day Mass is at 6 p.m. Friday at OLP and 2:30 p.m. on Saturday for St. Victoria.

Sunday Masses Continue Online

You can access our Sunday mass by going to <http://olpcatholicchurch.org/> videos until further notice. We hope to be able to upgrade and live stream soon.

The Call-To-Action Committee Completes its Mission

Committee has a New Purpose and Name

In February 2020 the OLP Call-To-Action Committee completed its stated mission, specifically crafting a sexual abuse prevention action plan for the parish. However, there is much more work to be done. In March the Parish Council asked the committee to craft a new mission statement to continue this work. This parish ministry has been renamed the Committee for Education and Action on Sexual Abuse (CEASA) and will serve as a ministry reporting to the parish council to oversee the execution and annual review of Our Lady of Peace (OLP) action plan to prevent sexual abuse of children, young people, and the most vulnerable. Additionally, this committee will ensure compliance with the Diocesan Safe Environment Regulation. For more information please contact Scott West at (804) 715-2342 or scott.g.west@gmail.com.

Christian Formation Resources

For the whole parish and especially those in religious education; Kaky Bowden and Ginna Haske co-ordinate Christian Formation at Holy Cross. They will be happy to offer themselves as resources if your need arises. Kbowden@holycrosslynchburg.org and ghaske@holycrosslynchburg.org Resources from St. Thomas More can be used as well.
