Memorable Moments in Diocesan History

To be published each week of the 200th anniversary liturgical year

by Chene Heady

The ongoing effort of Virginia's Catholics to prove they were real Americans continued during 1931's sesquicentennial celebration of the battle of the Yorktown and the end of the Revolutionary War. Bishop Brennen designated Fr. Richard B. Washington—a "collateral descendent of George Washington" and thus himself a symbol of Catholic America—to say the celebratory mass marking the victory at Yorktown on Sunday, October 18th, 1931.

The Kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants. It becomes a large bush, and the birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.

St. Mary Magdalene

Herald of the Resurrection

Mary stayed outside the tomb weeping. And as she wept, she bent over the tomb and saw two angels sitting there, one at the head and one at the feet where the body of Jesus had been. And they said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

And she replied, "They have taken my Lord and I do not know where they have laid him." When she had said that she turned around and saw Jesus there, but she did not know that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" She thought it was the gardener and said to him, "Sir, if you carried him away, tell me where you laid him and I will take him." Jesus said to her,

"Mary!" She turned and said to him, "Rabboni" (which in Hebrew means "teacher") Jesus said, "Stop holding on to me because I have not yet ascended to the father. But go to my brothers and tell them that I am going to my father and your father, to my God and your God." Mary of Magdala went to the disciples and announced, "I have seen the Lord," and what he told her.

The Loving Spouse

Anonymous

A woman accompanied her husband to the doctor's office for his checkup. Afterward the doctor took the wife aside and said, "Unless you do the following things, your husband will surely die." The doctor went on to say, "Here's what you need to do. Every morning make sure you serve him a good healthy breakfast. Meet him at home every day and serve him a well-balanced lunch. Also, feed him a good hot meal each evening. "Don't overburden him with stressful conversation, nor ask him to perform any household chores. Also, keep the house spotless and clean so he doesn't get exposed to any threatening germs. Be available to serve his every whim." On the way home the husband asked the wife, "What did the doctor say?" She replied, "He said you're going to die."
