A PASTORAL MOMENT WITH FR. JIM

A Poem Dedicated to Mary
by Irene Zimmerman

All the way to Elizabeth
And in the months afterward.
She wove him, pondering,
"This is my body, my blood!"

Beneath the watching eyes
OF donkey, ox, and sheep.
She rocked him, crooning,
This is my body, my blood!

In the moonless desert flight
And the Egypt days of his growing,
She nourished him, singing,
"This is my body, my blood!"

Under the blood-smeared cross
She rocked his mangled bones,
Remembering him, moaning,
"This is my body, my blood!"

When darkness, stones and tomb
Bloomed to Easter morning,
She ran to him shouting,
"This is my body, my blood!"

Good work quilters!!! Tickets are $3 for 1 and $5 for 2. Drawing is October 12, 2025. Tickets are available after masses. Can they count on you to either purchase tickets or take a book or two to sell?
